Please carefully consider the following three questions and provide answers to each on a separate sheet of paper.

- 1 Have you ever been in a situation where you truly wanted to get involved but didn't have the confidence in your abilities or skills/knowledge? With this in mind, what do you hope to gain at this year's conference to help you overcome such obstacles in the future?
- 2 As a whole, which qualities do you like best about your generation, and which do you like the least? What do you believe is the greatest challenge your generation will face and what thoughts/ideas do you have for handling the issue?
- 3 Delegates of this year's camp will have access to $40,000 in grant money. Given the opportunity to draw from these funds, how might you apply a portion of this money to help solve a problem or make a positive change in your school or community?
